NOTE:

Chinese name: 百事可乐 Transliteration: Bai Shi Ke Le Meaning: 'Everything laughable'

PepsiCo had a smoother journey into China and followed the same naming trend as Coca-Cola, route 3 (dual match). They too chose a well-researched trademark that translates as "Everything laughable" or more loosely "Be happy with everything" The four characters are a close phonetic match to Pepsi-Cola and transliterate as Bai Shi Ke Le.

"LAY'S" is "乐事", the translation has similar meaning.
